

Join us Friday, January 21st, for the

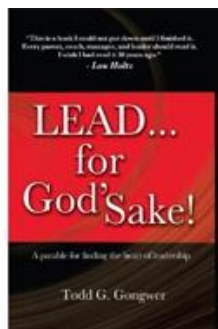

Leadership Breakfast

Time: 6:15 – 7:30 AM

Location: Honkers Restaurant
Mishawaka, Indiana

Economic uncertainty, political strife, and the demise of the fundamental values our society was founded upon pose significant threats to the marketplace as we know it. At no other time in recent history has there been a greater need for leaders who are willing to rise above current business trends to stand for something more...something of lasting significance. We need leaders who not only understand what to do and how to do it, but more importantly, we need leaders who understand WHY they do what they do, and lead from a foundation of PURPOSE!

Join us as Todd Gongwer, husband, father, entrepreneur, former college basketball coach and author of LEAD...for God's Sake!, passionately shares his incredible journey of discovering the importance of answering the question WHY in leadership. Ultimately, Todd will challenge you to reflect deeply on your own leadership to discover the path to becoming the very best leader you were meant to be, while living a life in pursuit of peace, purpose, and passion!
